In Memoriam.

Born March 9, 1856.
Died February 10, 1924.

We have lost our friend, Frank Ross Gray is dead. On the afternoon of February 10, 1924, retiring to his bed, perhaps to dream of his work for organizations he loved so well, he little thought that his earthly work was ended. The stranger's stay was short, but he departed our friend, our co-worker was no more. The rest which he had hoped was an earnest one. He is dead, but his work will live after him.

Frank R. Gray was a charter member of Pittsburgh Social League of the Deaf and for many years its secretary. He was a member of the National Association of the Deaf and for years its Secretary-Treasurer. He was a member of Gallaudet College Alumni and for years its Secretary-Treasurer. At the time of his death was its Secretary-Treasurer. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf, Doylestown, Pa.

He had always been an earnest member of the N. A. D., active in every branch, and he will be sadly missed in all these branches in the United States, but nowhere will his loss be more keenly felt than in Pittsburgh branch.

The ways of the all-wise God are inscrutable to the poor understanding of mortals, and since it has pleased Him to remove from our midst our friend, our co-worker and Sec'y-Treasurer, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Frank Gray, Pittsburgh Social League of the Deaf; N. A. D., Pittsburgh Branch; P. S. A. D., Pittsburgh Branch; Gallaudet College Alumni and other organizations; have lost a valuable worker as well as an associate who was very dear to the hearts of us all; and be it

Resolved, That we take this occasion to give expression to our regard at his sudden death, and to acknowledge his great worth to N. A. D.; P. S. L.; P. S. A. D.; and Gallaudet College Alumni; and be it, further,

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, and five copies of the same be sent to his sister and relatives.

GRAY'S FAVORITE SONG—"RESIGNATION"

A memory comes to me tonight
Of vanished days,
When I could hear and all was right
Oh dear, dear days.

The world was filled with various sounds
To me so dear,
Life seemed one long, bright, happy day,
When I could hear

The rapturous songs of happy birds,
The hum of bees;
The plaintive whisper of the wind
Among the trees;

The faint, sweet sounds of distant chiming
The thunder's roar;
The waves' low sobbing as they broke
Upon the shore.

In fancy I can hear tonight
Songs soft and low,
Which mother oft at evening sang,
So long ago.

It seems but yesterday I heard
Her low, sweet song;
But years have fled—I scarce can think
It is so long.

The world's a world of silence now,
The bird's soft trill;
And mother's songs and evening chiming
Are hushed and still.

And yet I feel each day how good
God is to me;
'Tis true I can no longer hear
But I can see

The glorious light that floods the sky
At rise of sun,
And misty purple shadows fall
When day is done,

Beauty in every form is spread
O'er land and sea;
Ah, yes, indeed kind heaven has
Been kind to me,

My heart is grateful, love goes up
To that blessed One
And lowly I reverently breathe
"Thy will be done."

When this strange earthly life is o'er,
Death's angel dear
Will bear my soul to realms of bliss,
Where I shall hear,

Music of wondrous sweetness, then
Shall greet mine ear,
In that eternal, glorious land
Where I shall hear.

Frank Ross Gray Dead

An article that will be of interest to the deaf people of the United States appeared in a recent issue of a Barry Adage. The article follows: Body of E. R. Gray will be brought here. Had lived in Pittsburgh for thirty-five years.

Mrs. Richard Evans, sister of Frank R. Gray, on Sunday morning received a telegram from Vincent Dunn that Frank Gray may die any time on that day, conveying the news of the serious illness of her brother, F. R. Gray. The message also stated that he could not survive longer than three days, and on Monday morning, at 10:30 o'clock a dispatch came bearing the news of his death, which came at 2:50 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gray's death, it is understood, was the result of chronic tuberculosis.

Mr. Gray will be remembered by many of the residents of Barry, Ill., and El Dara, Ill., where he formerly lived. He spent some time here five years ago with his sister and before his father's death about twelve years ago, he came home every year.

Frank R. Gray was born in Barry, Ill., on March 9th, 1856, and was a son of Burton T. Gray and Sophronia Gray. His father was one of the early carpenters and contractors of this city (Barry) and was widely known.

At the age of seven years Mr. Gray lost his hearing, following a severe attack of mumps and measles. When he was twelve years old his father sent him to the school for the Deaf at Jacksonville, Ill. At the end of five years, or when he was seventeen, he graduated from that institution with the class of June 11, 1873, with high honors. He studied hard and was an apt pupil, holding the respect of each pupil and teacher in the school.

Following his graduation from the Jacksonville school he entered the University for Deaf (Gallaudet College) in Washington, D. C. He finished his course there and graduated with the class of June 19, 1878. Mr. Gray held the honors of his class.

After his graduation from Gallaudet College, he went to Texas, where he purchased him a tract of land and entered the business of raising sheep, but he was not satisfied with his venture and sold his herd of sheep and land in that State after a short time. He came back as far as Kansas where he bought another farm in Woodson County. He engaged in the sheep raising business quite extensively, but in the summer of 1885 sold out the sheep business and accepted a position through Dr. James H. Logan in Pittsburgh, Pa., with a large optical company (Dr. James Brashear Co.) All of the rest of his years have been spent with that same company.

He held the confidence of his employers and business associates. Mr. Gray worked hard for an education, but he had, during his years of study, acquired a fine one, which he put to use in the business world. When foreign correspondence came to the office of the firm for which he worked, he was always called upon to translate it, as he was the master of several different languages. Mr. Gray was considered one of the finest lense grinders in the country.

Mrs. Richards Evans, of this city (Barry), is an only sister, and only near relative of Mr. Gray's. Their mother having died when they were real young and the father about twelve years ago. Two brothers have preceded Mr. Gray. Mrs. Evans has ordered the body sent here for burial, but at present no definite funeral arrangements have been made.

Mrs. Gladys Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans, of Chicago, expects to come and will arrive this (Wednesday) morning.

On February 10, 1924, Mr. Frank R. Gray passed from this life into the life beyond at the Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, after a three weeks' battle with disease and declining physical powers. He had suffered a similar collapse last fall and was confined four weeks at a hospital. At that time he recovered sufficiently to return to his work, that of an expert lens maker but his strength returned very slowly. Toward the end of January he suffered a recurrence of his former malady and was forced into the hospital once more, though he had resisted the move as long as possible. It was too late, and a complication of diseases, and a collapse of physical energy carried him off in spite of doctor and nurse.

Mr. Gray's death cast a gloom over the whole deaf community of Pittsburgh and vicinity. He had been active in all their affairs, acting as secretary and treasurer of various organizations, and so came into contact with all in one way or another. He will be greatly missed.

Mr. Gray had no home and relatives, so a short service was held over the remains at the undertaker's chapel, North Side. Here friends in numbers gathered to show their regard for their departed friend and co-worker.

Mr. Robert P. McGregor, of Columbus, O., G. M. Teegarden and Mr. Elmer Read spoke briefly, giving emphasis to the worth of the deceased as a man and a friend. There were a number of floral tributes. They came from the Pittsburgh Social League of the Deaf, the National Association of the Deaf (Pgh. Branch), the P. S. A. D. Branch, the Ladies' Auxiliary, the employees of the Brashear Optical works, where Mr. Gray labored, and Mrs. James McDowell, daughter of the late John A. Brashear and wife of Mr. Gray's late chief.

Through Mr. Gray, this School obtained from Mr. H. C. Frick the gift of a class 4-inch telescope, on which Mr. Gray expended much labor and skill.

Mr. Gray spent much of his time coming out here to instruct officers and pupils in the use of the instrument, giving him time and instruction without compensation. He knew the starry heavens so intimately that it was a pleasure to him to render such service. Through Mr. G. M. Teegarden in the Western Pennsylvania paper for the Deaf.

The following is a letter from Dr. Percival Hall:—

February 13, 1924.
DEAR MR. DUNN:—I am very sorry indeed to hear of the death of Mr. Frank Gray, one of our oldest graduates. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Gray some years ago when he visited Dr. Hotchkiss. He was a very fine man and a useful man in every way. It is very sad to see the older generation of college students passing away.

Please accept my thanks for keeping me in touch with the institution and your kindness and interest in Mr. Gray's welfare.

Very truly yours,
PERCIVAL HALL,
President.

In a message to my friend, Robert P. MacGregor, I asked him to come to see my closest friend, Mr. Frank Gray, at once. He was very seriously ill in the hospital. I got a letter from him that his doctor advised him not to come to travel till his broken rib is a little better, as something might happen to make it worse.

Thank God that Mr. MacGregor sent me a telegram, February 6th (Wednesday night) at 10:45. The next morning my mother told me that Mr. MacGregor was coming to Pittsburgh. He and I rushed to see Mr. Gray on that night. Mr. Gray said to Mac, "Glad, very glad," and MacGregor was lucky to see him two days before he died. MacGregor and I were at his bedside at the time of his death. He was ill in a private ward at the time. The nurse and I watched him till 2:50 o'clock. I was feeling very sad, and I sent a telegram to his sister that he died.

Mr. Robert P. MacGregor of Columbus, O., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sawhill for a week. He returned home after Mr. Gray's remains left Pittsburgh for Barry, Ill. MacGregor brought the sad news to Columbus, O. Mr. Gray was very popular and well known in Columbus.

Mr. Frank Gray's body and I arrived Barry, Ill., February 15th. Friday morning all that loving hands could do for him was done.

The funeral of Frank Gray was held at the church Saturday afternoon, February 16th. His sister's pastor, Rev. H. H. Waltham held the service. He preached a good sermon about Mr. Gray's life. He believed that Mr. Gray's worth in the world is counted by the friends he has made. His passing leaves a vacancy in the hearts of thousands, for which all his doctor's degrees, with all his learning, with all his friendships among men of science and of note in other lines, he was best known for his interest in humanity at large. And he learned much about the stars. And he told other people about them. But more than all this, he values the fact that deaf people in Pittsburgh and vicinity called him a "wise man." After the funeral service the body was taken to Barry Cemetery and laid by the side of his father and mother.

SOMETIME.

Sometime, when all life's lessons have been learned,

And sun and stars forevermore have set,
The things which our weak judgments here have spurned,

The things o'er which we grieved with lashes wet,
Will flash before us out of life's dark night;

As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue,

And we shall see how all God's plans were right,
And how what seemed reproof was love most true.

And we shall see how, while we frown and sigh,
God's plans go on as best for you and me,

How, when we called, He heeded not our cry,

Because His wisdom to the end could see,
And e'en as prudent parents disallow

Too much of sweets to craving babyhood,
So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now

Life's sweetest things, because it seemeth good.

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's wine,

We find the wormwood and rebel and shrink,

Be sure a wiser hand than yours or mine

Pours out the potion for our lip to drink,
And if some friend we love is lying low,

Where human kisses cannot reach his face,
Oh, do not blame the loving Father so,

But wear your sorrow with obedient grace.

And you shall shortly know that lengthened breath

Is not the sweetest gift God sends His friends;

And that, sometimes, the sable pall of death

Conceals the fairest boon His love can send.

If we could push aside the gates of life,

And stand within and all God's workings see,

We could interpret all this doubt and strife,

And for each mystery could find a key.

But not today! Then be content, poor soul,

God's plans, like lilies, pure and white unfold,

We must not tear the close, shut leaves apart,

Time will reveal the calyxes of gold,

And if, through patient toil, we reach the land

Where tired feet, with sandals loose, may rest,

When we shall clearly see and understand,
I think that we will say "God knew the best!"

Mr. and Mrs. Evans and family wish to extend thanks to all the deaf people and friends for their assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of their beloved brother, Frank Gray. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

VINCENT G. DUNN.

Deaf-Mute Killed By Auto

Amos Ramey, a 38 year old deaf-mute, was killed almost instantly Sunday night, February 10th, at 6:01 o'clock when he was struck by an auto as he was crossing East First street at the San Jacinto street intersection on his way to the East Avenue Baptist Church two blocks away from the deaf's B. Y. P. U. regular meeting. The driver of the car is reported to have been drunk, while driving the car without headlights and after the accident, speeded away going up a side street.

Ramey was hurried to the city hospital in an ambulance, but died while being carried there. His body was then carried to the Rosengren Cook undertaking establishment where it was prepared for interment Monday afternoon at 4:30 in Oakwood Cemetery.

Ramey was a member of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf at the time of his death, but owing to his sojourn in Mexico for a while, had failed to pay dues since November.—Texas Lone Star.

LOS ANGELES.

After several gray days and rain, which argued ill for Pasadena's greatest annual event, the first day of the new year dawned brightly. There was a rip in the air that made those early abroad in search of vantage points, snuggle into nisters and great coats. But before the sun had caused the glistening frost, which came a few hours before dawn to vanish, all roads to Pasadena bore cars by the thousands. For two hours Fairland was paraded before the eyes of fully 300,000 persons in the thirty-fifth annual Tournament of Roses at Pasadena. Then fully 50,000 of the great crowd saw the Navy football team and that of the University of Washington play a tie game in the ninth East-West gridiron classic—score 14 to 14. It was the most spectacular game in the history of the Tournament of Roses. The Mid-dies of Annapolis, Maryland, were the more finished machine, in fact, and gave the finest exhibition of football that has ever been shown by an Eastern team in a New Year's game.

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the fifth anniversary birthday of the Los Angeles Silent Club, celebrated by its members on the evening of the 23d inst., though the real date of its organization was the 18th inst. The decorations in both the club room and banquet hall were in the club's colors, purple and orange, and in the former room the big letters pinned on the curtains of the stage plainly spelled "The 5th anniversary birthday of the L. A. S. C." Beneath the letters on a beautifully decorated altar perched a live full-grown white rooster, with the club colors around his neck and features, overlooking the members, who were wondering, if he can "cock a doodle Si-i-e-n-t Club." The rooster is the mascot of the Los Angeles Silent Club, and when he was a small chicken pecking his way through his shell, the Club was founded by Mr. William H. Phelps. By the way, the rooster has been well cared by Mrs. I. Haworth for the founder since then. Chairman Price, in charge of the affair, made some remarks about the anniversary, after which he amused the members by hearing what the mascot was saying and interpreting for him.

The chairman finally said that "the mascot wanted to see his master, and has never forgotten his kind care when young." When the founder appeared on the stage beside the altar he was somewhat surprised to see the different colored favors on the heads of the members and was heartily congratulated by the members on being the founder of the Club. After the anniversary ceremonies were over, all the members, wearing the favors, headed by the founder and mascot, followed the Chairman and Toastmaster, P. Handley, marching down stairs to the banquet hall, where they were quite surprised to see a big, beautifully decorated birthday cake with the English inscription on top "The 5th Anniversary birthday of the L. A. S. C." in purple and with its five tiny orange candles. Mr. Phelps being the founder of the Club accepted the offer of cutting the cake to every member, and it took him quite a long time to finish the cutting. There were one hundred and fifty present, who had enjoyed the beautiful of eats. Following the serving of cake, Mr. Handley acted as toastmaster and made some witty remarks on each president of the Club, who was to speak before the audience. The following presidents in order were: Mr. W. Phelps, Mr. B. Burgess, Mrs. H. Terry, Mr. L. Fisk, Mr. S. Himmelschein, Mr. K. Willman, Mr. W. Rother, Mr. M. Clements, Mr. E. Price and Mr. A. Ruggiero. The last named is the present president of the Club. Mrs. H. Terry and Mr. K. Willman were absent at the banquet. The eleven's clock ended the affair with its everlasting remembrance.

We are apprised of the fact that the National Association of the Deaf branch here has been dissolved, being succeeded by the California Association of the Deaf. The C. A. D. has an unusually large membership and will hold its regular business meetings hereafter. Mrs. H. Terry is the present president of the Association, and her secretary is Mrs. W. Schneider. Best wishes for their success during their terms.

The local Division, No. 27, had a regular monthly meeting on the evening of the 8th inst., which did not end until midnight, on account of the initiation of the new officers and also the nominations of delegates. The name of the elected delegate will be announced later on.

A nice affair of last week was a card party entertained by Mrs. W. Rother at her home. Following a brief business meeting was the serving of refreshments. Thirty guests enjoyed the hospitality of their hostess.

Coming from Kentucky to enjoy freedom here from the snow of her home is Miss Ruth Tuck, a Gallaudet College graduate of 1922. She expresses herself as delighted with Southern California and plans to prolong her stay here.

Mr. Axel Amundsen is back in town from San Francisco after a long absence with the view of making his permanent home in Long Beach, a suburb of Los Angeles. He has got a steady position with Hastook Photo Co. there. He expressed considerable surprise at the growth of the city and the unusual amount of building going on here.

The only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Terry, who is to graduate from University of California this coming summer, and who has for some weeks past been enjoying a visit with her folks has returned north.

Mr. D. Kaiser, formerly of Berkeley, has lost fifteen pounds as a result of his illness with the flu for three weeks. He seems to be quite himself once more.

Mr. Leo A. Fisk has sold his shoe-shop, on account of a failure in his business, and had to return to his old trade of auto tire repairing.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club of the Deaf has been getting along as usual as the wheel goes, and is trying pretty hard to move to a better place within walking distance of the town. Its baseball nine has been disbanded until the opening of the summer loops.

THE EDWARD MINER GALLAUDET FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL:—I thank you for printing my last article in reply to Mr. Theo. C. Mueller's regarding the Edward Miner Gallaudet Fund. I believe that a large majority of the people agree with the sentiments expressed in Prof. H. D. Drake's and my last communications. Mr. Mueller made a big mistake in the fight against the use of the Fund for a building to the memory of Dr. Gallaudet on the grounds of Gallaudet College at Washington, D. C. His argument against it is entitled to little weight.

I am writing with no desire to have a controversy. I thought that the discussion was closed, but my attention was called to another communication of Mr. Mueller's in the February issue of the Silent Worker, intending to convey the impression to the public that the question of what to do with the Fund has not been disposed of.

Let me state as a fact that it has been disposed of, and the decision made by the Gallaudet College Alumni Association that the Fund will be used for the memorial building was FINAL. Mr. Mueller being aware of this fact, has no right to propose other uses for the Fund. His influence that has been used against the memorial building, should have been used for it.

The Fund had the hearty approval of the Founder of the College for whom the Fund is named.

According to Mr. Drake, Treasurer of the Fund, the Ways and Means Committee is laying plans for raising funds for the erection of the memorial building, and is waiting for the Gallaudet Monument Replica Fund to be completed. The plan of the Committee is to give each State a quota to be fixed according to the number of deaf in each State as disclosed by the last census. Then they will appoint an agent for each State, and have him raise the amount assigned. In this way each community will know just what it is expected to do.

The campaigners should certainly take courage from the stimulating results of the Gallaudet Monument Replica Fund Campaign, which has been waged by the deaf people.

This is a great opportunity for valuable service on the part of those called upon to aid in this work.

It should be regarded not merely as a duty but as a privilege. Of course, the people will respond when called upon for any service in connection with the campaign.

A building is the most appropriate memorial to commemorate the virtues, achievements and accomplishments of a man who performed good service for humanity. The memorial building to Dr. Gallaudet will perpetuate his unselfish and noble service for the deaf. As the years come and go, the deaf will treat with greater tenderness and get more inspiration from the life work and cherished ideals of Dr. Gallaudet.

Deaf and Blind Girl Pronounced Cured

WILLETTA HUGGINS OF WISCONSIN HAD "SMELLED" COLORS AND READ NEWSPAPERS BY TOUCH.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 29.—Willettta Huggins, 18, the deaf and blind girl who astounded the medical world in 1922 by "smelling" colors and reading newspapers by touch. Today was pronounced by medical authorities as practically normal in both senses. Willettta attributes her cure to faith in God and advice from Christian Science practitioners, and declares she still retains her powers of touch and smell.

J. T. Hooper, Superintendent of the State School for the Deaf and Blind, where Willettta is studying, cannot explain her cure. He says the girl from birth was able to see and hear a little and that during her early life her sight and hearing waned and waned in strength.

Willettta first insisted last Fall that she could see and hear, Mr. Hooper said. She repeated her assertions and last week Mr. Hooper summoned Dr. T. J. Williams, Dr. J. B. Simmons and Dr. J. E. L. Keys from Chicago. On Sunday they made exhaustive tests and today announced the cure.

The girl was the subject of spirited controversy in 1922, when her powers of smell and touch were first noted, in which Professor Joseph Jastrow, University of Wisconsin psychologist, after a number of tests, declared the girl a fraud.

The girl was taken to Chicago and put through a series of rigid tests, disproving the theory of mental telepathy advanced by Professor Jastrow. Blindfolded in a dark room, the girl distinguished by her sense of smell the colors of three pieces of cloth, sealed in separate envelopes, and distinguished a fourth article as an empty envelope. In another test she ran her fingers over five sheets of paper covering a hair and traced the length of the hair. She also named the denomination on currency.

Superintendent Hooper today asserted that Professor Jastrow was unfair during his tests, he and his assistants acting so brusquely as to frighten the sensitive natured girl and prevent her giving satisfactory demonstrations.—New York Times.

TORONTO TIDINGS

Our "Pathfinders" took the strong team of the Methodist Book Room into camp and beat them in a friendly game of hockey, by the score of 2 to nil, on February 25th, at Willowdale Rink. Our boys would have scored more goals but for the wonderful crouching of their opponents' goal keeper, who turned back shot after shot with punch and dexterity.

For sometime previous to the date, Miss Arlie Chestnut had been quietly arranging a surprise party for her friend, Mr. Stephen R. Edwards in honor of his natal day, which came on February 27th, and he said the affair was all staged for the final touch, when word came by telephone that Mr. Edwards could not come to the Chestnut home that particular evening, where he was being lured on the pretext of some important business, on account of his mother's very serious illness. This message cast a gloom over the crowd, as it was appraised of the matter while waiting at a secluded corner for final sloop down. In order toward off any suspicion, Miss Chestnut held the party on February 26th, so as to catch Stephen unsuspectingly. During the evening three prizes were offered to the persons who topped the highest marks in two games. First the bean guessing contest, in which Mrs. W. R. Watt and H. W. Roberts came out evenly on top, and in the drawing test the former got the box of toothsome chocolates. In the word-spelling race Mr. F. E. Doyle won first for gentlemen, a pair of socks and Mrs. Doyle duplicated the trick of her husband on the ladies side and got a sanitary apron for her cleverness. A very delightful lunch was served around by Arlie and her gracious mother, who has a warm heart for the deaf, and by a number of kind relatives. A great time was had by all.

Owing to the mass meeting of the Frats and outside visitors in the main Auditorium of the Central Y. M. C. A. there was no meeting in room 8, of the building, the headquarters of the Bridgen Club, on March 1st.

A social evening was spent at the home of Secretary and Mrs. Geo. W. Reeves, on Lansdowne Avenue, on February 28th, by the handful of newly enrolled Frats, where they had the pleasure of meeting and acquainting themselves with Mr. Frank P. Gibson, of Chicago, the international Secretary of this American organization.

Among our visitors who came from afar to attend the banquet and installation of the Frats, or to look up old friends and with whom they were guests, were: Mr. Francis P. Gibson, of Chicago, with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reeves, Messrs. Howard J. Lloyd and Walter Baumgart, of Brantford, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ford, Mr. Albert Sless, of Pontiac, Mich., at Carls Rite, Mr. Paul Sandusky, of Utica, N. Y., with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bell, Messrs. John Ryan, Philip Mane, Daniel Coughlin and W. Elmer Davis, of Buffalo, N. Y., Clyde Barnett and Peter N. Hellers, of Detroit, Mich., all at Carls Rite Hotel, Mr. A. H. Staibits, of Kitchener, with Mr. and Mrs. George Brethour, Miss Gladys Lloyd, of Brantford, with friends, Rev. Mr. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse, with Mrs. N. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas, of Oakville, with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McCaul, Miss Margaret Golds, of Kitchener, with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Doyle, Messrs. Glen Ball, of Ash, and Clinton Parker, of Colborne, with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bartley, and Mr. Charles A. Ryan, of Woodstock, at "Mora Glen."

It is reported that Mrs. A. W. Mason's brother, Mr. William Lewis, who left Leamington for British Guinea last June, was killed and eaten by cannibals, not long ago. If the report is true, Mrs. Mason, has the deepest sympathy of all. However, we hope the report is not true.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pilgrim, of Niagara Falls, Ont., were guests of relatives in this city over the weekend of March 1st, and attended the "Frat" banquet. Both are doing very well at the Falls, but wish they could work here.

Miss Pearl Herman received word that her aunt, Mrs. Nix, was dangerously ill at her home in Stirling, and Pearl left on March 3d for her bedside. She expects to return in a couple of weeks.

Mr. Clinton Parker, of Colborne, came to the city end of February, where he spent a week with relatives and friends. He graduated from the Belleville School some ten years ago.

The Rev. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse, preached at our church on March 2d, and gave a most interesting address on the Peace of God, and during the discourse drifted out upon the benefits derived from fraternal unity and life insurance. Miss Dorothy Hazlett gave a beautiful solo. Mr. Merrill also conducted the Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. the same evening.

After the installation of the officers of our new Fraternal Society of the Deaf, Division, No. 98, at the Y. M. C. A. on March 1st, Mr. Francis P. Gibson, of Chicago, gave an address on the foundation and growth of this organization before a large and attentive audience.

A telegram of good wishes was received on Saturday evening, March 1st from our old friend, Mr. David S. Luddy, on behalf of the San Francisco, Cal., division for the success of the Toronto Division of the N. F. S. D., also letters of well wishers, from several other American divisions and from Mr. James Greene, of Chesley, all of which were greatly appreciated.

Mr. William James Ross was up in New Market over Sunday, March 2d, and returned with his eighteen year old daughter, Miss Margaret, who expects to get a position here. She has been living with an aunt in Bracebridge ever since the death of her mother fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Edwards, beloved wife of Mr. Amos Edwards, of Afton Avenue and mother of Mr. Stephen Russell Edwards, passed to the great beyond on Sunday March 2d, after a lingering illness of over four years' duration. She was in her 72d year, and was much beloved by a great legion of friends, and more especially by the deaf on account of her big heart, her motherly charms and her frugal habits. Whenever Russell would give a party to his friends, and they were numerous and often, she was always on hand to assist her son in whatever way he wished to entertain them. Though gone from our midst her memory shall never fade. Besides her husband and Russell, she leaves another son, William, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy. The funeral was held on March 5th at Humboldt Cemetery and was very largely attended. The casket being largely attended. An evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The Sunshine Circle held a meeting at "Mora Glen," on March 4th, with all but one member present. Miss Mabel Wheeler of the city Health Service was also present and is going to give the members some valuable pointers on first aid emergencies. A dainty lunch was served at the close.

The Toronto Division, No. 98, Fraternal Society of the Deaf, held its first banquet on March 1st, at the hotel Carls Rite, and over one hundred took part in the affair, which was considered a brilliant success. The menu was good, varied and plentiful. After the inner man had been satisfied a programme of speech making, a toast list, was carried out. "Our King, Canada, and the British Empire," was proposed by Philip Mane, of Brantford, and responded by Mr. John T. Shilton, of Toronto, and he paid a glowing tribute to the only Empire on which the sun never sets, to the most brilliant gem in its crown, and to the man, who presides over its destinies. "The President of the United States" was proposed by Arthur H. Jaffray, of Toronto, and replied to by Rev. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse, who paid high respects to the chief magistrate of our neighboring nation. The N. F. S. D. was next brought forth by Mr. George W. Reeves, and Mr. Francis P. Gibson, of Chicago, eulogized its worth and influence. Finally came the toast to our "Ladies," proposed by Mr. Howard J. Lloyd, of Brantford, and Mr. Peter N. Hellers, of Detroit, made the fair damsels present blush with pride as he pictured them in the most fascinating and glowing terms. All then departed in a body for the installation ceremonies at the Central Y. M. C. A.

KITCHENER KINDLINGS.
Miss Margaret Golds and Mr. A. H. Staibits, who attended the banquet of the "Frat" in Toronto on March 1st, are loud in their praise of the good treat accorded them.

Mr. Oliver Nahrung, of Ayer, was a business visitor to this city lately. We regret to hear of the painful accident that befell him since then, when he got his foot badly gashed by an axe.

Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Newton Black, on the death of a five days old cousin in Detroit the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moynihan, of Waterloo, entertained a jolly bunch of Galt and Kitchener friends to a skating party at Victoria Park, on Saturday evening, February 23d. After enjoying a couple of hours of fun on the steel blades all repaired to the cozy Moynihan home, where mine host and hostess made all feel at home with delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coles, of Galt, and Mrs. Stewart Robertson, of Preston, were guests over a recent week-end of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moynihan in Waterloo.

Little Dorothy, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Underwood, is just eight years old, but has only had three birthdays in all that time, for she first saw the light of day on the 29th of February. On that date recently she had a party of eight little playmates at her home to usher in the event, and it was a treat to behold how the youngsters revelled in enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Newton Black dropped in to see them at play.

Mr. A. H. Staibitz and Mr. William Hagen took a jaunt out to Speedville on a recent date, to see the former's son, Arthur, who is spending the winter on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Nahrung.

Miss Margaret Golds was a guest of her friend, Miss Luella Strong, of Bloomingdale, over a recent week-end and enjoyed the outing very much on the farm.

Mrs. John A. Moynihan and daughter, Beverly, have returned from a pleasant visit to Brantford.

The many friends here of Mr. Stewart Robertson, of Stratford, are glad to hear he is on the road of recovery, after a lingering illness of a couple of years. We hope his road is clear ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golds, Jr., entertained a few friends from Waterloo to tea on February 24th.

Mr. A. H. Staibits went down to Brantford for the meeting on February 24th, and spoke on "Neglect" before a good crowd. In his absence, Mr. Absalom Martin conducted our weekly service here.

GENERAL GLEANINGS
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton and daughter, Miss Helen, of Horning Mills, were the guests of Miss Barbara Alcorn in Corbetton, on February 24th. The long cutter ride, with the temperature like April, was a most delightful outing. Miss Alcorn is doing fine.

We report with pleasure the recovery of Miss Maude Bracken, of St. Catharines, from her long continued illness. She is now out among her friends once more. She graduated from the Belleville School over a decade ago.

Mr. Clarence Ryan, of Woodstock, was down to Hamilton the other evening, to witness the championship hockey game between the University of Toronto and the Hamilton Tigers, in which the Bengal Terrors made the students taste the stigma of defeat to the tune of 5 to 1.

Mr. August A. Staibits, of Kitchener, took a trip to Brantford and spent the week-end of February 23d with President Howard J. Lloyd of the Ontario Association of the Deaf, when they discussed coming convention matters. Mr. Staibits is the energetic Secretary of this Association.

We are glad to say our old friend, Mr. William Bryce, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has recovered from a prostrated illness and is now back on his job again, which he has steadily held for the past sixteen years.

Mr. McGague, of Brantford, and Miss Francis Calvert, of Shelburne, were married on March 5th. More particulars later.

Mr. J. R. Newell, of Milton, lately called on Miss Clara Hartley, who we are pleased to say, has recovered from a severe abscess on her forehead.

We hear that Miss Sarah Templeton, a former teacher in the Belleville School for the Deaf, and now living in Edmonton, Alta., had the misfortune to fall and sprain her leg lately. We hope she is improving now.

The many friends in Canada are very sorry to hear of the low condition of Mrs. Thomas Bradshaw, of Santa Barbara, Cal. She was a great favorite when living here, and we trust the best will come to her.

After such a long silence we have just learned that our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chaine, are doing very well in Edmonton and have two little girls to enliven their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Oeser, of Tristram, Alta., recently motored up to Edmonton, where they had a pleasant visit with friends. Mrs. Oeser was formerly Miss Margaret Veitch, and a sister of Miss Elizabeth and Mr. James Veitch, of Spence, Ont.

Mr. Lewis Inland, of Huntsville, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dixon in Fraserburg, on a recent Sunday. Lewis is now employed in the Huntsville Tannery.

Miss Gertrude Dickson, of Fraserburg, has been visiting relatives at the former home of her mother in Fenelon Falls for a week. She is the oldest and cleverest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Dickson, and her mother was formerly Miss Mabel Elliott.

X. E. S. NOTES

March's meeting of the Xavier Ephpheta Society was well attended. The rules of Lent and the spiritual benefit to all who conformed with them, was the gist of Father Egan's sermon letter, read by President Fives.

At the executive meeting a hundred odd dollars were paid out for sick relief. This was the largest amount allowed for the purpose in several years at any one meeting.

President Fives announced re-production of "King Robert of Sicily" would soon be underway. Father Egan also stated he had secured the services of Miss Katherine Fitzgerald to coach the players. With considerable experience in things dramatic, Miss Fitzgerald is rated a "lived wire."

The receipts will benefit St. Elizabeth's home for Deaf Working Women.

The activities of the Brooklyn De l'Epee Society will also begin to function this month on the fourth Sunday. Father Egan has fixed his O. K., suggesting at the same time a change in the title, so that it may be known the members are affiliated with the Xavier Ephpheta Society. The object, however, will continue as for the past fifteen or more years—to commemorate the name and fame, and annually the birthday of Abbe De l'Epee. Paul Murtaugh has been chosen by President Fogarty as chairman of the arrangements committee.

Several deaf friends of Miss Marion McCoy have been recipients of postals from her big brother, Detective Jim McCoy, still in Paris, awaiting word from the Paris authorities to return to America with a trio of "Bad Men," who are wanted here.

After X. E. S. meeting, members lined up for the usual chatter in front of the College. The ensemble was noteworthy for the up to date variety of the young men's outfits. With a semi Spring overcoat of a deep pepper and salt line, Frank Cunningham might have been taken for a Tammy Hall sashem. While others adopted the popular "Kellys," varying in hue from a dark tan to a cream tint, Matty Higgins continued to hold on to the low crowned college dome-top.

The time is drawing near when the Alphabet Athletic Club will entertain the deaf public at their coming Chinese Pig Tail Dance, for the benefit of their Camp Fund, which is to be held at the Bronx Castle Hall, on Saturday evening, March 15th, at 7.30 P. M. The hall, one of the finest on Manhattan, is now well known among the deaf about this time, since Bronx Division, No. 92, and the N. Y. Branch of the N. A. D. held their affairs there. It is very easily reached by all lines, and ten minutes' trolley ride from Broadway.

There will be various kinds of Chinese games, for which Chinese prizes will be presented to the winners. The decoration, etc., will also be of a Chinese nature—in fact everything will be made so as to take all the guests to an original Chinese entertainment. The committee is making every effort to make this affair an overwhelming success in the way of entertaining the deaf. It's something new—something odd.

Some time ago, Mr. Charles J. Le Clercq, of San Francisco, was offered a position at Honolulu—similar to the lucrative position he has had with the Sunset Magazine Company. He put it aside for further consideration. Later on, he received an urgent telegram from Honolulu, assuring him of free passage and a higher salary.

Taking advantage of such a liberal offer, he at once accepted it. Besides, new sight-seeing was too much of a temptation to resist. In the following week—on the sixteenth of January—he and his wife took passage by steamer. Mrs. LeClerc's health needs change of air, and consequently will be benefited, as her doctor says. Mr. LeClerc works for the Star Bulletin, a leading newspaper, which has a commercial art department in which he has accepted the position of manager of the color department. Before leaving San Francisco he was treated to a farewell dinner by the staff of the publishing company. He was assured that the company would be happy to have him back at any time if he was not satisfied with his new job. A week before his departure he was surprised with a prize gift of a double eagle ($20). The prize was awarded him for the catch of the largest striped bass in Cape Creek within the past year. The fish caught weighed 14½ pounds. He did not know about the prize contest, and so he was surprised.

Mr. LeClerc says he has known the new theatrical star, Miss Helen Menken, from her early childhood. Her parents are deaf. Miss Menken was born in New York City twenty-one years ago, and began her stage career at the age of five, as a child dancer in "Midsummer Night's Dream." She has been almost continuously on the stage ever since. For years she was in stock companies, or on the road doing one-night stands. About four years ago, she made a great impression by her work in "Three Wise Fools." She followed this by another success in "Drifting." And last season, in the leading role of "Seventh Heaven," she took her place in the front rank of young American stars. Her home is in New York. When Miss Menken was a little girl Mr. LeClerc used to escort her home after her nightly performance. He often treated her to sweets on the way. So she called him "Candy Daddy."

About three years ago, as long as Miss Menken played on the stage in San Francisco, she repeated her visits time and again to Mr. LeClerc in the hospital, after his accident with an automobile. Her appreciative gifts of flowers, fruits and sweets, reminded him of their pleasant evenings in New York. —Cal. News.

On February 22d, Mrs. A. A. Cohn asked hubby to go after her two boys, who were out costing. Mr. Cohn is yet quite a young man, and joined the sport with his boys. The bill was a very steep one, and about seven blocks in length. All went on smoothly, and papa and the kiddies enjoyed the sport to the utmost. To avoid an accident, which would probably have proven serious, Mr. Cohn steered the sled out of danger, thus saving injury to his two boys, but at the same time wrenched his right arm and back by bumping against a post. Last week he was at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League with his right arm in a sling, and explained to his friends of the accident, and now he is hailed as a hero.

Mrs. Isabella Fosmire tells us that her nephew, Howard N. Jones, who is an electrical foreman in the Newark Public Service, was recently cited for bravery in connection with an accident. One of his men received a shock of very high voltage, and was given up as dead by all except Mr. Jones, who continued for twenty minutes his attempts to revive the victim. His efforts were successful, and the result was that the doctors called it a real miracle. Mrs. Fosmire is justly proud of her resourceful nephew, and is praising him to all her acquaintances.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lampese, in honor of Mrs. Lampese, on Saturday, March 8th. A large number of deaf mute friends enjoyed the occasion, playing games. Many gifts were received. Mrs. Lampese's maiden name was Dorothy Maemone, a Fanwoodite. Her husband graduated from Westchester Institute about four years ago. The couple have a two-year old hearing boy.

Bronx Division, No. 92, of the N. F. S. D., has selected Mr. Joseph Graham as delegate and Mr. Jack Ebin as alternate, to the Convention announced for next year Manhattan Division, No. 87, has selected Messrs. Max Lubin and Samuel Frankenstein. Jersey City Division, No. 91, has appointed Messrs. Charles Hammer and Henry Hester. Brooklyn Division, No. 23, has elected Benjamin Friedwald as delegate and Thomas Cosgrove as alternate.

A luncheon party was given Saturday, March 1st, from 2 to 5 P. M., by the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Wilhelmina Buhle, to celebrate the seventy-ninth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Buhle. An enjoyable time was had by the guests, who were as follows: Madames Chas. McMann, Elizabeth Barnes, M. L. Haight, Chester C. Manu, George Witschiel, and Miss Gussie Berley.

Divorce Desired by Bride of Day

HELEN FABIAN DECLARES IN APPLICATION THAT MARRIAGE WAS CONSUMMATED BY FRAUD, DECEIT AND MISREPRESENTATION.

Helen Arnhart, wife of John Arnhart, made application for a divorce in Blair County Court at Hollidaysburg this morning. Mrs. Arnhart, who before her marriage on January 29th was Miss Helen Fabian, declares her wedding was consummated by fraud, deceit and misrepresentation. Judge Thomas J. Baldrige issued a subpoena in the case, making it returnable on the first Monday in April.

It will be recalled that Arnhart, a resident of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., came to Altoona one week ago yesterday, and going to the home of the young woman's relatives in this city, with whom she made her home, is alleged to have obtained her consent to get into an automobile with him. He is said to have represented to her that he desired to take her out to show her how to do some sewing and that he would bring her back again.

However, the story goes, that Arnhart took the young woman to Hollidaysburg where he secured a marriage license and going to a justice of the peace was wedded to her, leaving on a train the same day for Pittsburgh, where they were intercepted and the young woman returned to this city. A prosecution was subsequently brought against Arnhart before an alderman but the case was dismissed.

The young woman declares in her divorce application that the nature and character of the transaction were not explained to her, and that she did not know or understand that a marriage ceremony was being performed. She was not acquainted with the man, she stated, and did not intend to marry him. She further states that the marriage was not consummated by her and that she never cohabited with him. —Altoona (Pa.) Mirror, Feb. 6.

A VALENTINE.

A many maids there be,
Beneath the sun
Yet, dearest heart, for me
There is but one.
You with the joyous air
Like morning skies;
You with the twilight hair
And vesper eyes.
Come days of rose or rue,
Still life be flown,
My love will be for you,
And you alone.
—Clinton Scollard, in Life.

FANWOOD.

The writer is telling about the present generation, but has been told by former students of this institution that when this school moved from Fifth Street many years ago, it was a country place, and thickly wooded, among which there were many fruit and nut trees. As the city grew in population, and streets were cut up for its development, the trees one by one were cut down. Not that the authorities desired to do away with the beautiful trees, that afforded cool spots in the summer months, but because of the opening of the streets and avenues. Many Fanwood graduates, no doubt will recall the chestnut trees, even the cherry and peach trees on the grounds, and the apple tree on the girls' side. All these long ago had to be cut down.

The only trees in the boys' side were the stately trees fronting the Trades' School. Last month they were cut down for good, but also with sorrowful thought of the once shady spot it afforded to the pupils in summer for several generations.

A year or so ago, they were trimmed, but they did not thrive, perhaps on account of not having the fertility of soil necessary as formerly when the site was surrounded by other trees.

Many a ball game has been lost on account of these trees being in the way, but now their being cut down, the ground will be leveled, and in the future the center fielders will be able to throw the horsehide that way.

Though the last of the many of the fine trees are gone, the play grounds are improved thereby.

The long awaited opportunity for the pupils to use their sleds came last week when a heavy snow came, almost by a miracle, and when everybody was snugly in bed dreaming happy dreams, and for the past week coasting on the boys' side has been fine, and giving pleasure to those fortunate to own sleds. Some even ventured to skate down the hill, a feat that has been uncommon in years gone by.

On Wednesday, March 5th, Coach Frank Lux, and the Fanwood Seniors, including the scorer, traveled to Cornwall, N. Y., to play basketball with the New York Military Academy team. They led at the end of the first half, 14 to 6. In the second half the margin was increased slowly but surely, near the middle of the period the N. Y. M. A. team led 22-17, but they ran the score in the final period up to 32 to 21.

MARYLAND.

On the fifth of March Supt. Bjorlee of the Maryland State School for the Deaf, and Dr. Bernard C. Steiner, President of the Board of Visitors, were called to Annapolis, where with Governor Ritchie, they went over the final plans of the new building project. At this writing Mr. Bjorlee expressed himself as very hopeful of securing funds for the erection of a new trades building with a modern gymnasium.

Mr. Orlando K. Price and Mr. W. W. Duval, of Baltimore, are now employed in the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. They work on the night shift and make daily trips to Washington. For about a year they were on the payroll of the Baltimore American, but found their places too unsteady, hence the change.

Quite a number of graduates of the Maryland School availed themselves of the opportunity to witness the Fanwood-Maryland game in Frederick, on the twenty-third of last month. Among the visitors were Messrs. Abe Stern, Harry Creager, Earl Metty, Walter Swope, Alan Cramer and Rozelle McCall. The game was well worth the trip, and turned out to be one of the best games ever witnessed in Frederick. The clipping below should suffice to give the reader a vivid description of the game:

"The game between the Fanwood School, New York City, and the Maryland State School for the Deaf, turned out to be just as advertised, a thriller and a great game in every respect, that kept the big crowd continuously on its feet. It was featured by brilliant passing and clever guarding by both teams. In fact, it was an exhibition of the fastest passing and guarding ever seen on the local State School court."

"New York started the scoring with a two pointer from near the midfield, which was immediately duplicated by the Marylanders. After that it was a saw saw affair, neither team ever having more than a two point lead until three minutes before the final whistle, when the score stood 19 all. Then the Marylanders successively penetrated the New York's five-man defense and rolled their score up to 29, thus registering a 26-19 victory over one of the strongest deaf teams in the East."—Frederick Post.

After the game the New Yorkers and the visiting graduates were entertained at an informal reception by Supt. and Mrs. Bjorlee, in their spacious parlor.

About four months ago Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Leitch, of Baltimore, were presented with a beautiful mahogany clock, having cathedral chimers, by the members of the Baltimore Division, No. 47, upon the happy arrival of a little girl. Said little girl is now four months old and seems to have a keen sense of humor. Whenever she hears the sound of the chimers, she looks at the clock then at her deaf parents and immediately bursts out into a fit of laughter. Wonder if she is laughing at the Baltimore Division for giving them that clock—you ask her Bro Leitch.

On February 27th, Mrs. Clarence Leitner, sister in law of our Helen Leitner accompanied by Mr. J. P. Lyon, of the Evening Sun staff of Baltimore, paid the school a visit. The last named is a grandson of our very good friend, Mr. William G. Jones, teacher at the Fanwood School, New York. Mr. Jones is one of the most beloved among the deaf men of our profession. Mr. Lyon contemplates a visit in Baltimore from his grandfather, who is anxious to see his great grandchild in the Lyon family. Should such a trip be made, we feel certain that Mr. Jones will pay us a visit, in which case one of the rarest treats imaginable in the public speaking line will be in store for our deaf children. Mr. Jones has the reputation of being the most eloquent sign maker of our time. Do come. —Id. Bulletin

Mr. George H. Faupel, teacher at the Maryland School, delivered one of the best and most thrilling lectures in the Christ M. E. Church, Baltimore, of which Rev. Daniel E. Moylan is pastor, on February 21st, before a very large crowd. Speaking about "Penal Systems of Old," he most vividly and clearly depicted the cruel methods of torture and horrors of the old penal systems and explained the reforms that have taken place. As a lecturer, Mr. Faupel is known as one whose real place should have been in the pulpit or on the platform. After the lecture Mr. Faupel was entertained at a social where he had the pleasure of meeting many of his former pupils who are now prospering in the world.

The old saying that "trouble always comes in pairs," appears true in the case of Mr. Henry Bernac, the genial shoe shop foreman of the Maryland School. Over four months ago he sustained a severe injury to his feet, when he fell from a pear tree, which has necessitated the use of crutches for a long time. Last Friday he was stricken with appendicitis and immediately rushed to the City Hospital for an operation. The writer visited him on Sunday, and found him doing very nicely and as cheerful as ever.

The basket ball team of the Maryland State School for the Deaf received a fine compliment in the form of an offer for a game with Davis-Elkins in Virginia this month at a big guarantee. But the Marylanders declined the invitation, as their present schedule is full, and Coach Harry G. Benson expressed his doubts as to the advisability of making such a long trip to meet the team that played close games with the Navy, Loyola College, and St. John's College, on its last Eastern tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Courad Oeb, of Baltimore, left for Harrisonburg, Va., on the twelfth of last month, to attend the funeral of an aunt. They returned to their home in the Monumental City three days later.

On Lincoln's birthday Mrs. Samuel Noll, of Baltimore, presented her husband with a little son. Congratulations.

Mr. Harry Benson, printing instructor at the Maryland School, proved his skill as a proof reader by winning two tickets for "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which is showing in Frederick this week. The tickets were awarded by a large local department store, for finding a misspelled word in their big newspaper advertisement a few days ago. The misspelled word was "magnificent."

Mr. Philip E. Boss has just completed the enviable record of thirty-seven years of faithful service with the Hess Bros' Fine Footwear Factory in Baltimore. His work has always been highly appreciated and he has always been greatly esteemed by his employer and fellow workers.

Speaking about faithful deaf men with long service records, brings to mind our old friend Mr. James O. Amoss, of Baltimore, who was reluctantly retired with a pension from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., about two years ago. He was on the payroll of Uncle Samuel for well over forty years. The writer had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Amoss a short time ago, and found him looking as hale and hearty as ever. By the way, Mr. Amoss recently showed his appreciation of what the Maryland School had done for him, by donating five dollars to the school's Athletic Association.

OHIO.

We are beginning to wish Mr. Greener would hurry back and take up his old job of scribe for the JOURNAL. News, that is news, is so scarce that we find it hard to send out a weekly letter.

The article "The Psychology of Signs," by Mr. Preston Barr, Jr. in the JOURNAL of February 28th, was one of the best things, we have read on the subject of signs, and we hope every reader of your paper read it not only once but a few times.

Walking thru the main hall at the school today, we noticed that there had been a change in the pictures on the walls. Formerly portraits of former governors of Ohio adorned these walls. These have been replaced with those of presidents of our country.

Last Sunday we met Mrs. Anthony Schwartz (Elizabeth De Lancy) in the school ball, and time has dealt very kindly to her. It was hard to believe the big boy by her side was her son. He is a pupil here and is as popular as his parents were in their time.

Mr. Albert Oehlmecher has umpired so many games that he is fast becoming known as an official, not only among the deaf players but in the various leagues in the city composed of hearing boys and men. Last summer he umpired as many as fifty games in the city recreation department, and not only all gave satisfaction to all concerned, but also added quite a sum to his bank account. When a deaf man is called upon to umpire for the hearing, it shows that he knows his business. He will no doubt be kept busy this summer again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Merchant (Flora Newman), of Marion, O., are often seen in this city, as they make frequent trips here to observe the work of their little daughter at school. Mr. Merchant is employed in Marion Packing Co., where from 400 to 500 hogs are slaughtered daily. Mr. Merchant has steady work and the company seems satisfied with him.

Mr. Jacob Showalter, who substituted for Rev. Mr. Charles in Dayton, on February 24th, reports all the deaf people there who had been laid off for various reasons are back on their jobs again.

Mr. Harry Hartard, who recently spent a few days in Cincinnati, found most of the deaf employed. All this speaks well for the deaf of Ohio.

Before long the boys in the cabinet works will be busy making chairs for the School, as a large supply of lumber has been stored for that purpose. Learning how to use tools is a good thing for any boy, whether he means to be a carpenter or a teacher. We often think it would not be out of place for the girls to get some such training too.

The Columbus Ladies' Aid Society will have a social next Saturday,

March 15th, at the Girls' Athletic Club rooms. These annual gatherings, for the active and the associate members, are always pleasant affairs. The committee in charge is composed of Miss Dorothy Durant, Miss Abbie Kraus, Mrs. Bessie Cook and Mrs. Iva Lohr Cook.

At the regular teachers' meeting Monday afternoon the speaker, whose name has slipped my mind, urged our teachers to become members of the Ohio Teachers' Association, which has grown into a strong body of over 35,000 members. The matter will be taken up again before the teachers come to any decision.

DENVER.

The Rev. J. A. Cloud paid Denver a visit the 23d and 24th instant, Saturday evening he gave an interesting reading, at which many were present to see at St. Mark's Church. Following the reading there was a general discussion of the relative value of reorganizing the Colorado Association of the Deaf. Messrs. T. Y. Northern and Frank Lessley were the chief speakers. No definite plans were decided upon, but Mr. Lessley told the congregation he, as an officer of the dormant association, would see that it is reorganized in the not too distant future. This all sounds very encouraging, but we will not sit easy till action has begun in earnest. Sunday morning and evening the Rev. Dr. Cloud held services at the church. He departed in the 25th for Washington, D. C., where he was booked to appear before the student body at Kendall Green.

H. E. Grace, who is studying at St. John's College in Greeley, is a frequent visitor in Denver. He appears the first week of each month for business and church work.

The Denver Silents motored down to Colorado Springs Saturday afternoon, March 1st. A gymnasium exhibition, under the direction of Joe Shaner, was given at the Hubert Work Gymnasium of the Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind at 7:15 P. M. John exhibited his physical strength while the other boys gave minor stunts. At 8 P. M. a game of basket-ball between the Denver Silents and the school team was played. The Denver Silents drew first blood, but were soon headed off. The team work of the C. S. D. boys was too bewildering to suit their fancy. The first half was 15 to 3, but the second half showed no slackening in the fast pace the C. S. D. boys were setting, and the game ended 33 to 9 in their favor.

A proposed game between the Regis College Juniors, of Denver, and the Colorado School for the Deaf team some time in March, has not yet materialized, but the Denverites are hoping negotiations for this game come through, as it is worth going a long way to see their old school team in action.

A Masquerade party by the Liberty Club on March 8th, and a ball by the local division N. F. S. D., are two major events in silentdom for the first half of March. Mr. Haldeman, as chairman of the ball, is planning the biggest affair in many years. Many hearing people are expected to be present. Indications point to a huge financial success. Little is known of the Liberty Club Masquerade Party, except that the usual hospitality of the ladies in charge will not be absent.

T. R. Tansley is experiencing his first street car riding in many months; as the result of a badly battered cylinder in his Harley Davidson on a recent trip to Colorado Springs. He tried to set up a record for the trip that many would envy. Failure to do so led to a general inspection of his motor-bike, which revealed the above mentioned irregularity.

Christian Christensen got rid of his Gray roadster and purchased a used touring car. Having more than one lady friend, he purchased a more roomy car to take them all joy-riding at the same time.

Superintendent McAloney is planning a dedication of the new Argo Building on May 1st. The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the school will also take place on the same date. It is not yet known whether Denver will be represented. D. H. Wolpert, the first graduate of the Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind may be called upon to speak.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lessley and Jim Alford were visitors at the home of G. W. Veditz Sunday, March 2d. They motored down to Colorado Springs in a Ford Coupe.

Stephen Janovick wants to do Messrs. Keat and Whitaker one better in the way of an automobile. He has been eyeing an Oldsmobile touring very intentionally lately. Kent with a Case and Whitaker with an Oakland will have nothing on his Oldsmobile for mountain climbing, so says Stephen.

North Dakota is one of the most advanced States in the number of consolidated rural schools.

Little drops of water,
Little drops of ink,
Little facts, my daughter,
Make our readers t-h-i-n-k.

A good crowd attended the Sac "lit" on March 2d, Chairman Mrs. O'Neil having engaged Edward Garrett, the Cowboy-Emeritus of Montana, who delighted us with graphic reminiscences of his wild and woolly western wanderings. Ed has his own vein of coal in a coulee on his homestead, also a vein of iron ore, which will be worth "heap big mazuma" some day, when facilities for transportation to a smelter improve. Meanwhile Cowpuncher Ed is hibernating in this tenderfoot town for a spell.

The Illinois school paper comes out printed in a new and small type face. The latest issue toots its horn over the tooting of the school band—installed last fall by Bandman Fancher. It also takes a fall out of Jacksonville mercantile establishments, one of the most prominent having recently sent a post card to "Mrs. Col. Smith, Def & Dum, City."

Herbert Gunner sends in a clipping from the Dallas (Texas) Times-Herald, containing a photo of Alfred B. Kingon. "One of the men to be honored at the appreciation dinner of the Dallas Manufacturers' Association will be A. B. Kingon, for 45 years continuously an employee of the La Trinidad Cigar Factory. Mr. Kingon lives at 387 East Side av."

This Alfred is a deaf brother of Ed. Kingon, of Chicago's All Angels' church. Al left for Texas as soon as he finished at the Jacksonville school, and seems to have attained distinction down there.

The two brightest brains of Ephpheta circles were united in married January 26th, when Miss May K. Katen became Mrs. Edward F. Toomey.

Those two Canadian linotype operators are back in the Dominion. Morris went to take an operator, job there. Boese turned down seven offers of work in these United States because he was homesick for dear old Canada; his present whereabouts and occupation are unknown.

Dates ahead: March 15—Masquerade, Pas. St. Patrick's party, Sac. 22—Annual frat ball, Sac. April 12—Election of Chicago delegate to St. Paul.

Evidently a Fakir.

THE following is from a letter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bell, of 928 Montgomery Street, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada:

"We understand through your agent; Mr. Clark that you are the organizer of a campaign to collect loans among deaf-mutes to aid the German Institutions for the Deaf.

"Mr. Clark called on us, March 2d, and we gave him $25.00 to help along his fund, and through an oversight neglected to secure a receipt for the same.

"We would like to have your word that every thing is square and all right regarding this business, as we feel in an unfortunate position, having nothing to show for the money we gave him.

"When he left us for Gull Lake he said he would return next day, but nothing has been heard of him since and as he broke other promises with us, we are wondering how matters will end."

We have not "organized a campaign to aid German Institutions for the Deaf." Nor do we know any one authorized as agent for such Institutions.

This same man was exposed in Washington, D. C., we believe, through Dr. Hall, President of Gallaudet College, whose name he used as reference and proof of his representations. This was some time last year. Before he could be apprehended he had skipped. At that time he gave the name of Clark.

We interrogated two or three German deaf-mutes of the city, but they disclaimed all knowledge of any such mission among Americans. They had never heard of a man named Clark.

He got quite a sum of money from gullible people at Washington, before he was exposed. For we have no doubt he is the same man now playing his nefarious designs in the Dominion of Canada.

Deaf-Mutes should be very careful about contributing money to people they do not know. If they feel inclined to donate their surplus funds to any cause, they should first investigate it. The JOURNAL has no agent seeking assistance for German Institutions. Every project in that line which has been pushed or endorsed by us, has first been published in the JOURNAL. The public has been informed and urged to give.

But this man now separating the Canadians from their coin is very likely a fakir. Look out for him, and bring him before the legal authorities. Make a vigorous campaign against fraud and swindling.

Mr. W. O. Brannum died in Chicago, January 29th, at the age of eighty. For fifty-two years he was a teacher in the Tennessee School for the Deaf, retiring several years ago. He was one of those deaf men of character and ability to whom the schools can point with pride. —Minn. Companion.

CHICAGO.

You've seen it in a movie, the cast-off little kid,
The kindly foster-father, the kindly deeds he did;
The cast-off kid grown grandly up, a beauty rich and rare,
A swarm of woeful wails to wed—and give "old dad" the air.

The foster-father of the frats
Deserves our thanks and kindly pats,
For he has spread our noble order
Across the long-forbidden border.

Francis P. Gibson is back after installing, what is believed to be the first division of an United States fraternal society ever authorized in Canada—due to the extra-strict requirements of the Canadian insurance regulations! The N. F. S. D., of course. We lead; others follow.

Gibson was gone exactly one week, expenses paid by Toronto Division, No. 98. This Toronto division organized with 30 charter members—George W. Reeves, of 48 Landsdowne Avenue, Toronto, being secretary. Some 200 attended the public installation of officers March 1st, and 110 attended the banquet at $1.50 per plate. Representatives were there from the Utica, Syracuse, Buffalo, Detroit and Chicago divisions.

"Miss N. F. S. D." the "cast-off baby," which was thrust into the arms of good old Gib, by its parent-organizers in 1905—has now attained its majority—worth over half a million dollars. Gib dreamed a dream and lived to see the dream come true. There is speculation among the more thoughtful frats—will "man's inhumanity to man" cause younger, more vigorous brothers to eventually tell old foster-papa Gib: "Your child is worth over half a million, thanks to your tender nursing, so I will take it off your hands and marry it now. What do you know about taking care of it, anyway?"

On the way back from Toronto, Gibson made brief stops in Flint and Saginaw. Although in point of the largest number of applications secured and put through, Chicago frat division led in the contest for the prize given offered by General Organizer Gibson, little Charlotte, N. C., division No. 94 won with a percentage increase of 70 per cent during 1923. Chicago congratulates Charlotte.

The big event in the eyes of Chicago fraters is the election of delegates to St. Paul, to be held April 12th. Chicago division has 48 votes—one for every seven members—and therefore will play a prominent part in settlement of every important question; so the honor of being Chicago's representative, in what will probably prove the most important convention in nineteen years, is keenly sought after. Profiting by past experience, No. 1, intends to send the best men obtainable, it is understood, but just who the candidates are, and their platforms, I am prevented from publishing—by official order of Division Secretary Charles Kemp—until after election.

Mrs. J. Frederick Meagher, President of the Alumni Association of the Illinois State School for the Deaf, has been appointed to fill that vacancy on the Board of Managers of the new Illinois Home for Aged Deaf, caused by the death of LaFayette Patton last fall. President August J. Rodenberger of the State Association made the appointment.

The board now consists of Chairman, Milton Hart, president; Mrs. Dougherty, vice-president, Rev. Hasenstab, local secretary-treasurer, Ben Frank, matron and superintendent, Mrs. Gus Hyman, and Mrs. Meagher all of Chicago; and three non-Chicagoans, secretary-treasurer, Cleary, Miss Roper, and Mrs. Lewis.

A movement is under way to enlarge this board—adding several Chicagoans to facilitate the work—at the Rock Island convention of our State Association next July. Many locals will doubtless attend this convention, and adjournment hop on to the St. Joseph frat convention.

Mrs. Gus Hyman called an organization meeting of public spirited silent ladies at the Home March 6th, but due to bad weather only sixteen were present. These organized in a "Home Auxiliary," meeting every Thursday afternoon to sew things at the Home, discuss related and kindred topics, etc. Mrs. Hyman was elected President, and Mrs. Meagher, Secretary Treasurer of this new organization. This Auxiliary will meet every Thursday until the Home Bazaar in May; thereafter probably meet once a month. All deaf ladies are gladly welcomed.

WARNING—Some fakir calling himself Bert Clark is reported to be traveling in Canada, claiming to have been sent there by Chicago frat division, No. 1, to solicit money for the relief of the deaf in Germany. Ho-hum. Police stations are comfortably warm in this weather.

Things are buzzing busily around frat headquarters—they always are, for that matter, but more than usually so now. Two months work overtime, with an extra clerk or two, preparing the annual valuation reports and statements.

Charles R. Norris, en route to work in an Ashland Avenue trolley-car that was wrecked, received cuts on the head, which kept him at home for four days. The trolley company paid him $100 cash for his injuries. Pearl Day, of Minneapolis, was the guest here of the Rev. Henry Rutherford. (P.S.—No, this is not a morsel of scandal; Pearl is a man, in spite of his name.)

The Rev. J. H. Cloud was unable to fulfill his date at All Angels' March 5th, being detained in St. Louis to conduct the funeral services over the body of Mrs. Jackson, mother of our own Mrs. John Purdum.

Among visitors in town lately were: David Lewis, the Beckers, F. Rosenfield, A. Epstein, Milwaukee; Mrs. C. F. Martin, of Burlington; P. Reilly and wife of Wisconsin; David Sampson and Jack O'Donnell, of Minneapolis; Clyde W. Rhinehart, of Dubuque, Iowa; Della Meertz, Racine; Fred Stowell and wife Rockford; W. Blair, Hammond, Ind.; Miss Meta Hausman, Delavan, Wis.

The February issue of The Frat begins to look like old times—20 pages, mostly pages with a punch. The admission of women question comes in for considerable discussion. But it will take some mighty good arguments to convince Chicago that women are capable of sane, sensible, progressive club-life—for Chicagoans are still smarting under the lamentable debacle furnished by the Aux-Sac, which embraces more brilliant deaf feminine intellects than any city in America.

William O'Neil, of this city, was elected alternate to the frat convention from Kenosha division.

The Grand Medical Examiner of the frats was held up and robbed March 8th.

Dates ahead: March 22—Annual frat ball, Sac. April 12—Election of delegate to St. Paul. 26—Sac ball. J. FREDERICK MEAGHER.

OMAHA

Omaha Division held its annual Masquerade Ball at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, February 16th. Although a good-sized crowd turned out, it was not as large as expected, owing to inclement weather. The costumes were unusually good this year. The prize winners were:—

Most Original, $5 each—Mrs. Pope as a rabbit, and A. L. Johnson in a newspaper outfit.

Handsomest, $3 each—Mrs. Bowser, a Scotch lassie, and John M. Toner, a gentleman in evening dress.

Most Comical, $1 each—Mrs. Frank Trisler, as an old maid, and F. S. Waring, a rube on the way to the St. Paul Convention. Riley Anthony made a hit as an enormous rooster, but was disqualified for prizes by a ruling of the committee, of which he was a member. Refreshments were served and sacks of confetti contributed to the carnival spirit. The three-piece orchestra kept many on their toes until a late hour. The out-of-town visitors were Olden Robinson, Paul Kleinfeldt, Vivian Lytle and Miss Geneva Fritze, from Iowa, and Messrs. Ozias Stevens and Greeley Terpening from Nebraska towns. Mr. Stevens formerly lived in Oregon.

An event of great local interest was the basketball tournament held Friday, February 29th, and Saturday, March 1st.

In response to the invitation of Coach Jackson of the Nebraska School to the teams of several mid-western schools for the Deaf, the South Dakota and Kansas boys came here to play for a silver loving cup. The first game was on Friday evening at 8 P.M., between the Nebraska and Iowa boys, with a big crowd present, including high class pupils from the Iowa School. The Iowa boys, all being new players this year, were inexperienced in throwing and fielding, and were walloped by the fast Nebraska team. Score 21 to 3. This was followed by a game between Kansas and South Dakota, the latter under the training of Nick Peterson, a former Nebraska boy. They were comparatively small in stature and the Kansas boys, by throwing the ball high in the air, easily won by 14 to 8. The next game was on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, between the Iowa and Kansas teams. The Iowans were not in very good form and were licked by 37 to 3. Following this the Nebraska and South Dakota teams were on the floor, and it was the most exciting and closest game yet played, as both teams were evenly matched in size and weight. Their tactics were almost the same. The South Dakota lads started scoring and kept the lead almost till the end, when the score was 12 to 11 in their favor, but just before time was called the Nebraska boys made a free throw and a goal, thus winning the game by 13 to 12. Saturday night, before the largest crowd that ever assembled in the Nebraska School gymnasium at a basketball game, the Iowans played the South Dakotans. It was remarked that the Iowans had improved their game and started fast playing, putting in lots of pep and they won by 13 to 10. The final game followed between Nebraska and Kansas as both teams had won two straight games. Great excitement prevailed and everybody started yelling and waving. In the first half the Kansas team outclassed the locals, ending with Coach Jackson's boys in the short end, 17—6. The second half saw a closer game and it looked for a time as if Nebraska would come back, but it was too late and Kansas won the game by 25 to 12, also the beautiful silver loving cup. Supt. F. B. Booth made the presentation speech with Mrs. Jackson, interpreting. Nebraska, being second received a new basketball. The Kansas team was accompanied by its Coach, Edward Foltz, and Supt. and Mrs. Stewart Supl. and Mrs. E. A. Gruver of the Iowa School also were there. Everybody seemed to have a good time, and we hope to have a bigger and better tournament her next year, including several other school teams from the great middle west.

John Blaha, a former pupil of the Nebraska School, is training every day to be a boxer, at the Omaha Business Men's Gymnasium. He weighs 170 pounds and is nine teen years old. He can tell when the bell rings at the end of each round. He had a match with "Red" Wilson, of Omaha, last Friday night, March 7th, before a large crowd of fans at the Rose-land Theatre Building, south side. A number of the deaf attended, and although he landed five blows to Wilson's two the decision was declared a draw.

Mrs. Gillespie, nee Mamie Hall, came up from Albany, Mo. recently and spent two days visiting friends. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hurt.

Mrs. Clarence E. Sewell and children also were in Omaha some time ago and remained with Mr. and Mrs. Hurt for three weeks.

Omaha Division believes in sending different delegates to each convention, as we have several men to choose from. Those elected at the regular March meeting were James R. Jelinek, delegate, and Edwin M. Hazel, alternate, both capable and unselfish men, a rather hard combination to find these days. Ransom Arch, the second alternate, is also a loyal Frat. It was planned to hold initiation ceremonies, but other business had to be transacted. Out of town Frats were Messrs. Ziba Osmon, Harvey Miles, Floyd Dowell and Paul Kleinfeldt. Forty four were present, one of the largest in a long time.

PITTSBURGH.

The efforts of Rev. F. C. Smielan, with the financial backing of the deaf all over the State, to secure through legislative enactment the right of the deaf to operate motor vehicles is now bearing fruit. This happy news appeared on the front page of the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times of March 6th:

HARRISBURG, March 5.—A committee representing the deaf persons of Pennsylvania will pass up on all applications for drivers' licenses and learners' permits received from the deaf applicants by the automobile division, officials in the Department of Highways said today. The committee, which will serve without pay, consists of the Rev. F. C. Smielan, of Selins Grove, Prof. J. C. McIlvaine, of Philadelphia, and F. A. Leitner, of Wilkensburg. Since March 1st, it has been legal for deaf persons to operate motor vehicles in Pennsylvania if they received licenses.

George Greco, who married only less than a year ago, has been disappointed of a job as the result of the Tarentum Telegram going out of business.

The Pittsburgh Division, No. 36, N. F. S. D., is having a sort of tournament with chess, checkers, pool and "500" as the games. It has only just got under way. Mark another on the credit side of the recording angel's ledger for the deaf married man. Looking over the names of those who are in the tournament it can be seen that the deaf married men as a rule are good stay-at-homes. Games are in progress in the club room every night. Mr. J. C. Taylor is charged with the duty of keeping order and adjusting differences among the players.

Mr. William Gibson spent the week-end in Beaver Falls, Pa., for the purpose of getting the deaf of that town together for Sunday services. For some years past they have had no regular preacher or lay-reader. Mr. C. A. Painter, the newly appointed lay-reader of Trinity, now makes it possible for them to have services. He will make his first visit in their field Sunday, March 23d.

Under date of February 23d, the Pittsburgh Press chronicled the following:

"Deaf and dumb panhandlers are few and far between, but occasionally they come into the clutches of the law and they are pretty hard cases to handle. They can't testify and when an attempt is made to have them write a story they plead illiteracy."

"Some time ago, before contractors started to dismantle the old Central police station, one of the downtown coppers had picked up one of these vagrants on several occasions. Each time the magistrate would discharge the supposed pitiful victim. Johnny Morgan, then a sergeant at the station and now a city detective, said he had an inkling that the prisoner was an impostor. His suspicions were aroused when an electric light bulb was dropped behind the supposed deaf and dumb man and he sort of twitched.

"The next time he was arrested Morgan lodged him in a cell and waited until he was sleeping soundly on the steel bunk. Quietly Johnny made his way into the next cell with a sledge hammer. With all the physical power he could command he let the great weight of the hammer fall on the sheet steel partition dividing the cells. With a jump and yell, and a string of epithets that would do credit to a mule driver, the supposed deaf and dumb prisoner jumped from his bunk, ceding down the wrath of the Almighty on his disturber.

"Morgan testified at the hearing the next morning and the impostor got 60 days in the workhouse."

As can be seen, Pittsburgh may be relied on to cope with the impostor problem even without the aid of a Jimmy Meagher or a Johnny Purdum. Still we realized it the part of wisdom to keep on our guard at all times even when there seems no danger of the kind cropping out under the watchful eye of our police, who are pretty well informed as to the ways of the impostor.

The stork has been busy again in this vicinity. The proud parents rejoicing over the arrival of girl babies are Mr. and Mrs. George Korn and Mr. and Mrs. Hollen Willingham.

Mrs. Guy Montgomery, of Donora, Pa., was called to Athens, Pa., two weeks ago by the illness of a sister, who later died, within a few days a nice passed away unexpectedly.

Mr. Montgomery on his last visit to this burg turned in $26.20, which he collected for the Doylestown Home fund. He has always shown himself to be one who can be counted on to help in any good cause of ours.

The play "How the Story Grew," given by the ladies of the local P. S. A. D., on Saturday evening, March 8th, proved to be very amusing. The woman showed that they could talk all right, and each added a little to what they heard, till they had their neighbor, Mrs. Brown, dead and almost buried. The newcomer about whom the talk centered, and who was accused of shooting Mrs. Brown, instead of the low-down negro rascal their gossip made him out to be, was in reality their new minister. Follow is the cast:—

Mrs. Brown.....Miss Rose Borres
Mrs. Green.....Mrs. F. A. Leitner
Mrs. Bean.....Mrs. F. M. Holliday
Mrs. Rice.....F. M. Holliday
Mrs. Doolittle.....Mrs. Fred Allen
Mrs. Snow.....Miss De Nucci
Mrs. White.....Mrs. Samuel Nicholas
Mrs. Taylor.....Mrs. C. R. Myles

Fred Parks, who two weeks ago quit his Kaufman store job on account of the refusal to give him double pay for overtime, is now connected with the Seven Baker Bros. of the West End. He never had any previous experience in that line. Judging from the various jobs he has had and in, all of which he made good, he must have the knack of adapting himself to most any situation. He is a widower with open arms. We would consider fortunate the woman that falls into them.

The Pittsburgh Branch of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association will give a literary program at McGeagh Hall, Saturday evening, March 22d.

Fingers Flash Mute's Freedom

The following is from the N. Y. American of March 10th:—

It was fortunate for William Welch, a mute, of No. 495 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, when he was arraigned in Gates Avenue Court, Brooklyn, yesterday that John O'Brien, a court attendant, is adept with the finger language.

Welch was arrested late Saturday night. Unable to make himself understood in the Classon Avenue station, he was booked as "unknown man."

After he was arraigned the possibility of Welch going to a cell again, until an interpreter could be obtained today, loomed before the speechless man. O'Brien then took up the wigwagging of fingers he had learned. At the conclusion, at the direction of Magistrate Fish, O'Brien's digits told Welch: "Sentence suspended."

St. Patrick.

It is somewhat suggestive that the apostle of Ireland was himself a foreign-born citizen. He acquired a better right to speak for Ireland than any man that was even born in it, before or since. And that should be a lesson to moderate certain Irish patriots who would have it that there is nothing good that doesn't come from Ireland. There are good things, always have been and always will be, out of Ireland, as well as every country, as well as in it, and while it is permissible for us on this one day of the year to blow our own horn a little, it is well for us to be modest enough to acknowledge and to be thankful for the apostle who was not an Irishman and yet was the best Irishman that ever lived.—Dr. Edward McGlynn.

FANWOOD.

On Tuesday evening, March 11th, the members gathered in the chapel for the Fanwood Literary Association. Principal Isaac B. Gardner, M.A., Counselor of the Fanwood Literary Association, introduced Rev. Dr. James H. Cloud, of St. Louis, Mo., who entertained us with Short Stories from Life entitled "The Cat that Came," "The Heart of a Burglar," "Moses of the Burning Bush," "N. B.," "Arletta," "Patches," "Harmony," "Business and Ethics," "The Answer," and "Thicker than Water." His lecture was very interesting.

With Spring almost here, the Basket Ball Season closed. It is natural for our generation to turn from basketball to baseball, by beginning practice in the boys' yard. Cadet Captain Robert J. Flitting, the scorer, has reported the games since last November for this column. The Fanwood Basket Ball team made a wonderful record this year, and Lieutenant Frank Lux, Physical Director, who coached the team, is credited for the fine showing the boys made. The players played wonderfully clean games through the season, and that reflects great credit on both the coach and players.

The Fanwoods have played eighteen games outside the school and on our court, and won nine and lost nine, during the season just closed.

The games played were:—

On Thursday, March 13th, in the afternoon, the Senior Girls Basket Ballers, known as the Barrager team, clashed in a game with the Soudders, of Tarrytown, N.Y., in our gymnasium. The Barragers did not fare as well as that of the boys, through they continued to improve all the time. Several times they showed spurts of speed, as they did in their former game with the Soudders. They were 12 to 8 to the good at the end of the first half, but they lose out 17 to 14 in the final contest.

The line up:—

BARRAGER (14)	Pos.	SCUDDER (17)

The next event of great importance, of course, the Carnival and Fourth Annual Athletic Meet, on May 30th. Then the relay race at Franklin Field, under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania, on April 26th. Our relay teams are now training for the event.

On Tuesday morning, March 11th, Rev. Mr. Merrill was a visitor, and was shown around by Professor William G. Jones.

On Tuesday, March 11th, Mr. S. Salerno, a former pupil, paid a visit to this Institution, and was pleased to see Rev. Dr. James H. Cloud's lecture before the Fanwood Literary Association.

Rev. Dr. James H. Cloud was a caller to the JOURNAL office on Wednesday, the 12th inst.

On Saturday early morning Cadets Lient. and Band Leader Richard Pokorny, Lient. Ben Shafanek and Musician Heintz started running from here to Grant's Tomb without any stop, but Ben was obliged to stop about more than half way.

Gallaudet College.

The Athletic Association of the College held its fourteenth annual banquet in the men's refectory on Saturday evening, the sixteenth. A splendid menu was served. After the dinner, president Eugene O'Connell, '24, presided as toastmaster.
